Farewell Jamestown

Foreword

Leaving Jamestown High School is going to be hard for all students, not just the Seniors who will graduate this year. Of course, we, the Seniors, will miss the ball games, the pep rallies, the high school parties, the campaigning for Student Council elections, and the preparations for homecoming; but even more, we shall miss the friends that we have made in school and all of the joys and heartaches that have made up high school life. The students who go on to a new school and a new life will continue to carry on all of our school traditions. So before some enter a new school and a new era, we all want to bid farewell to old Jamestown High.

Jamestown High School today

Dedication

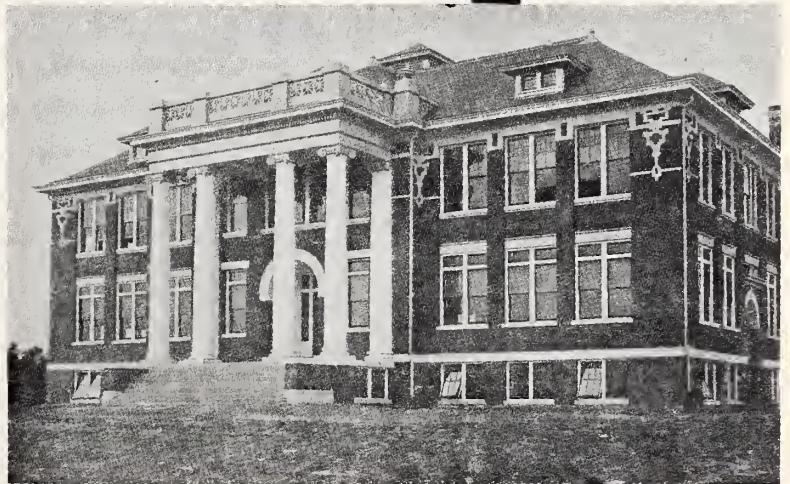

The first Jamestown High School

To the graduating classes of the first Jamestown High School, we wish to give our many thanks for helping establish the school spirit which has become so strong at Jamestown throughout the years.

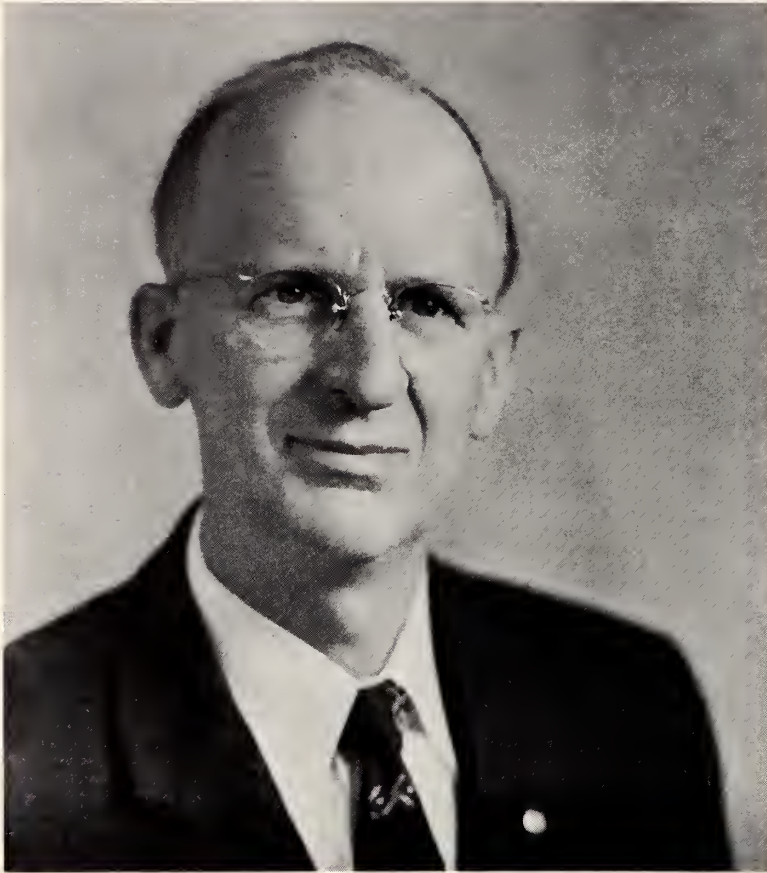

We want to salute all of the alumni who have carried the fine tradition of Jamestown High School with them in their many walks of life; we wish to express to you our deepest appreciation for representing Jamestown High School so well.

The Senior Class of '59 takes pride in dedicating this, the 1959 edition of THE ECHO, to the men and women graduates who have played such an important part in the history of Jamestown High School.

The early Jamestown High School.

Senior

Even without all these books, everyone knows MIKE STEPHENSON and SYLVIA HILL are the MOST INTELLECTUAL.

SANDY KENDALL and ALVIS SELF don't have to fish for laughs, for they are our WITTIEST seniors.

Superlatives

GERALD MORGAN and KAY PHILLIPS are much help around the office or anywhere because they are the MOST DEPEND-ABLE.

At the drug store or at school, NORMAN ARM-FIELD and RUTH ANN
LYERLY are the FRIEND-LIEST.

Senior

"PERSONALITY PLUS"
is a phrase often applied
to RUTH ANN LYERLY
and NORRIS HAYNES,
our BEST PERSONALI-TIES.

The telephones are always ringing for our
MOST POPULAR, DON
MORTON and KAY
PHILLIPS.

Superlatives

These two are certain to reach the top of the ladder because they are our MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED, GERALD MORGAN and SYLVIA HILL.

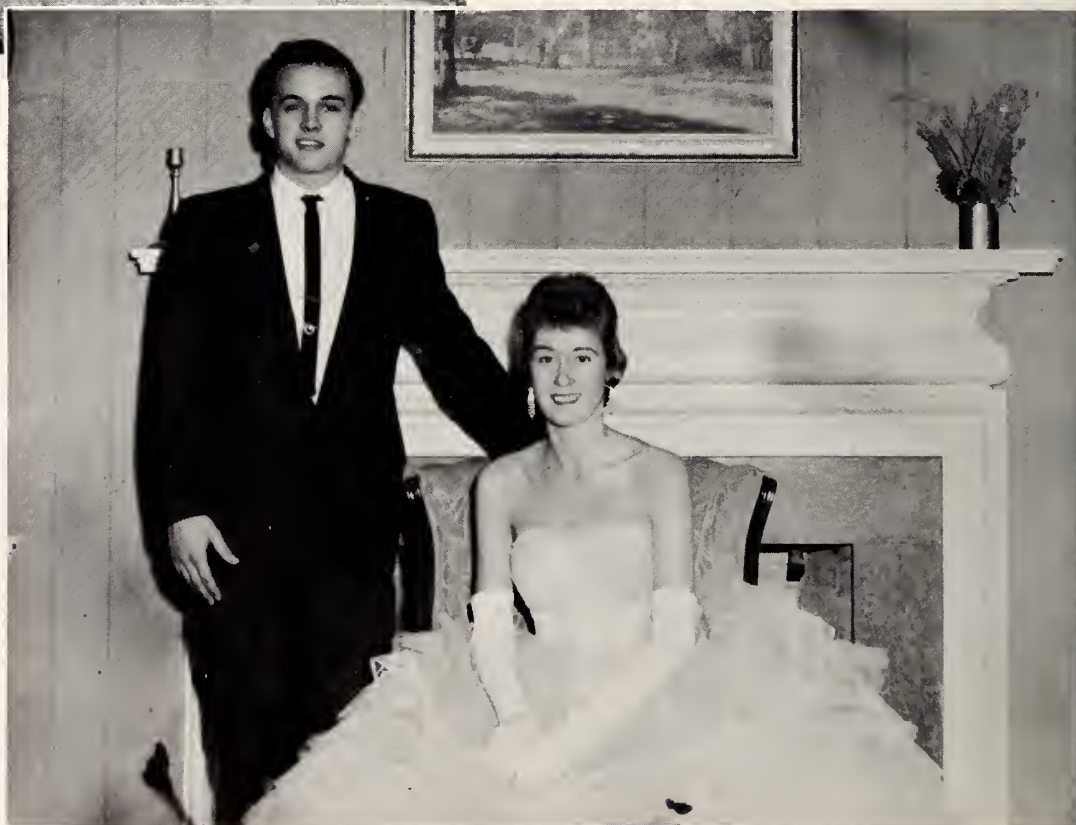

Practice makes perfect! RANDY McKELVEY and HELEN NELSON don't need any practice. They are the BIGGEST FLIRTS.

Senior

Sir Walter Raleigh with all of his chivalry would be proud of MIKE STE-PHENSON and KEITH HASSELL, the MOST COURTEOUS.

That is a very attractive painting, but who would notice when our MOST ATTRACTIVE, DEAN
ROYAL and BONNIE
MAY are in front of it.

Superlatives

Our MOST TALENTED,
CHARLES BRYSON and GILDA COX, feel right
at home on the stage.

Where did all of these trophies come from? Of course, they belong to DON MORTON and HELEN NELSON, our MOST ATHLETIC.

Senior

No matter where you see DEAN ROYAL and NOR-MA JEAN McGEHEE,
they are always the BEST DRESSED.

RANDY McKELVEY and JUDY MURPHY have a
"Barrow" of fun since they are the BIGGEST TEASES.

Superlatives

DOUG COLLINS and SANDY KENDALL would fit in any circle for they are the BEST ALL ROUND.

GARY HASSELL and PEGGY CARR, our MOST TYPICAL SENIORS, demonstrate an activity
that many seniors participate in.
